

KENDLER'S NAME TO BE ON BALLOT NOVEMBER 8

Electoral Board Declines to Act in Case of Candidate Not Qualified to Vote.

OUT FOR REVENUE COMMISSIONER

Election Law Governing Matter Not Specific Enough to Warrant Dropping Name of Aspirant, Lawyers Before Body.

The name of Thomas N. Kendler will appear on the ballot at the election on November 8, as an independent candidate for the office of Commissioner of the Revenue. This question was settled by the City Electoral Board last night, after an open meeting, in which George Bryan appeared in the interests of Mr.
Kendler, and W. D. Williams spoke for the City Democratic Committee.

John E. Rose, Democratic nominee, was not present at the meeting.
It was shown and admitted that Mr. Kendler had not qualified to vote at the November election. The question as to whether this fact barred him from being a candidate was vigorously discussed, and after exhaustive arguments by counsel for the two interests, the Electoral Board felt impelled to allow the name of Mr. Kendler to remain in the list of candidates certified by the clerk of Hustings Court. The board felt that with the knowledge that it had concerning the ineligibility of Mr. Kendler as a voter, it would have been compelled to have omitted his name, had the election laws been clearer in reference to general elections.

The election laws, section 32, provide that "every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision thereof, and shall be a qualified voter in the sense of the law, because he had all the requirements of citizenship in a general way. In passing upon the question, the board adopted this resolution:

"The board, after hearing argument of Mr. George Bryan, counsel for Mr. Thomas N. Kendler, and Mr.
W. D. Williams, in behalf of the City Democratic Committee, feeling that in the absence of any specific law governing cases of this nature, giving the board discretionary powers in regard to placing candidates' names upon the official ballot in general elections, declines to act on the case in question."

W. J. BRYAN INDORSES THE ARMS CONFERENCE

Commoner Discusses Plan Whereby Nations Could Settle Disputes Without Resorting to War.

William Jennings Bryan, in his lecture on "Brother or Brute?" at Schauf-fer Hall, Union Theological Seminary, last night declared that when the brotherhood of Christ is established, governmental standards will abolish law-made misery and private benevolence will relieve such unmerited suffering as is beyond the reach of the law.

"While the reason ought to supply the restraint necessary to stop the mad race for riches," declared Mr.
Bryan, "it does not do so. Intellectual processes fail; man needs a voice that can speak with authority —more, man must be born again."

Mr. Bryan gives considerable time to the subject of war, using the last war as an illustration and deploring the fact that nearly every great nation involved in a Christian nation.
He discussed a treaty plan whereby all disputes could be settled before resorting to war, and indorsed the efforts now being made to secure disarmament by agreement.

SERVICE LEGION TO GIVE DANCE FOR RELIEF FUND

Mrs. Cabell Made Chairman of Event at Meeting at Jefferson.

Plans were outlined and arrangements made at a meeting of the Service Legion, held yesterday in the Jefferson Hotel for a ball to be given some time in the near future. The funds from which will be devoted to various features of relief work. Mrs.
Caskie Cabell has consented to be chairman for the event, and various committees will be appointed to aid her in the undertaking.

The application blank, which was prepared by Miss Winifred Greenhaw, was adopted and will be ready for dis-

In order to assist in the delivery of medals of "Gold-Star Service Men," which were prepared by Miss Winifred Greenhaw, was adopted and will be

Arthur Kyle Davis, of Petersburg, addressed the body in the proposed organization of county, State and country, and committees will be named for the purpose later.

A question as to whether eligibility to membership would include paid, as well as voluntary service in winning the world war, evoked a spirited discussion, and on motion Dr. J. R.
McFawcett, the organization voted to permit both.

PORTSMOUTH CITIZENS SEEK BOAT SERVICE

Petition Corporation Commission to Require N. Y. P. & N. Railroad to Resume Its Schedule.

Citizens of Portsmouth and members of the Retail Merchants' Association of that city, through Captain John W. Happer, a well-known Confederate veteran, and City Attorney Barclay, appeared before the State Corporation Commission yesterday and entered a request for an order requiring the N. Y. P. & N. Railroad and the American Railway Express Company to resume boat service to that port. The boat service formerly extended from Cape Charles, where connection is made with the trains from the North, thence to Norfolk and to Portsmouth. The service between Portsmouth and Norfolk was curtailed during the war.

The N. Y. P. & N., through Judge Thomas H. Wilcox, and the American Railway Express Company, through Attorney Alfred Anderson, said the resumption of the service between Portsmouth and Norfolk was not justified by the business, and would entail a heavy loss to the railroad company. The express company contended that it had perfected an organization whereby service was given from Portsmouth shippers, which was far better than they could give if the boat service was resumed. The matter was taken under advisement by the commission.

Services at Beth Abnabuh.

11 o'clock.

HOME FOR GIRLS HOLDS TAG DAY ON OCTOBER 28

Comes Before Public First Time Asking for Much- Needed Co-Operation.

Many graduate nurses, business women, wives and mothers in Richmond and throughout the State owe their start in life to the Memorial Home for Girls, in Highland Park, formerly the Female Humane Association, on Seventh Street, for within the last few years the wards of the institution have been afforded opportunity to take up any vocation to which they aspire. But the cost of maintenance is so high that this institution, after having been in existence more than 125 years, is forced to come before the public for the first time, and is asking generous co-operation for the tag day which it is to hold October 28.

Mrs. Frederic William Scott is president of the board of directors and she declares that if this course is not followed it will be necessary to cease taking more children, because of the length of the waiting list and the great need of these wards for better surroundings make this out of the question. The number of girls already been reduced from sixty to forty-five within the last few years, but it was felt that thorough training for the girls in its care was better than the inferior development of a greater number.

Other officers are Mrs. Lewis C.
Williams, vice-president; Mrs. Frederick E. Nolting, corresponding secretary; Miss Helen Christian, acting recording secretary, and Mrs. Seddon Jones, treasurer. The matron is Mrs. Annie F. Lewis, and according to the requirements of the earliest history of the home, she, like her predecessors, must be "prudent, discreet and capable," and ably fills the requirements, it is declared.

BRYAN PAYS A TRIBUTE TO FOUNDER OF Y. M. C. A.

One Hundredth Anniversary of Sir George Williams' Birth Observed Here.

The 100th anniversary of the birthday of Sir George Williams, of London, founder of the Y. M. C. A., was fittingly observed by the local Y. M.
C. A. last night at the Central Building, Seventh and Grace Streets, where a noble gathering of leaders in the movement sat at dinner and heard interesting speeches on the life of Sir George and the achievements of his followers in all quarters of the globe.

Oliver J. Sands, treasurer of the local association, presided. He presented Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore, president of the Union Theological Seminary, who in turn introduced William Jennings Bryan. Mr. Bryan, in a characteristically snappy talk of fifteen minutes, reviewed the career of the founder of the organization, telling of the small beginning which resulted in an influential and successful undertaking, and pointed to the fact that all great achievements come from apparently insignificant beginnings.

At the conclusion of the set program, the fall membership campaign was launched. The drive will begin on October 24 and close on October 28.
